WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 24, 1897.

BISHOP TURNER REBUKED.—A dispatch from Atlanta Ga., says Bishop Gaines, of the African Methodist Church, who was raised by the late Robert Toombs, repudiates the recent call of Bishop Turner for the negroes to arm against the whites. In this repudiation Bishop Gaines says:

"I am as emphatic in my condemnation of the lawless and Godless crime of lynching as can possibly be, but Bishop Turner is entirely too radical. The best element of the people is opposed to lynching as much as the negroes can be. The Governors and peace officers of the southern States are doing all they can to bring about a proper condition of affairs.

"The best remedy for our evils is education and Christianity. The crimes for which lynching is the punishment are committed by the most ignorant of our race. It will take time to educate them.

"Bishop Turner's advice to the colored people to take up guns is simply suicidal. We are the weaker race, and in such a conflict would be the sufferers. We have a common future, and the best interest of the white and colored races run parallel. We must not permit ourselves to run into extraneous issues such as Bishop Turner is expressing."

MOSBY'S MEN AND GRANT.—John T. Dickson has issued an address to former members of Mosby's Cavalry, the Forty-third Virginia Battalion, informing them that that command is invited to participate in the dedication of the Grant monument on April 27. Mr. Dickson calls attention to this opportunity for the "expression of grateful sentiment" toward the magnanimity of General Grant and the appreciation of his "generous protection to our command." Col. John S. Mosby, at the close of the late war.

Members are requested to forward their names to Mr. Dickson at headquarters, Confederate Veteran Camp of New York, at the Windsor Hotel. [N. Y. Mail and Express, March 16.]

TRAGEDY AT A WEDDING.—B-I-grade newspapers publish a story of an outrage committed by Albanians upon a party of Christians at Tetova. A young Christian couple had just been married and a party of their friends had gathered to celebrate the event.

While the gayeties were in progress a number of Albanians appeared and demanded that the bridegroom pay a so-called wedding tax. This he refused to do, and his refusal so exasperated the Albanians that they attacked the Christians and killed or wounded twenty of them.
